

Tableau

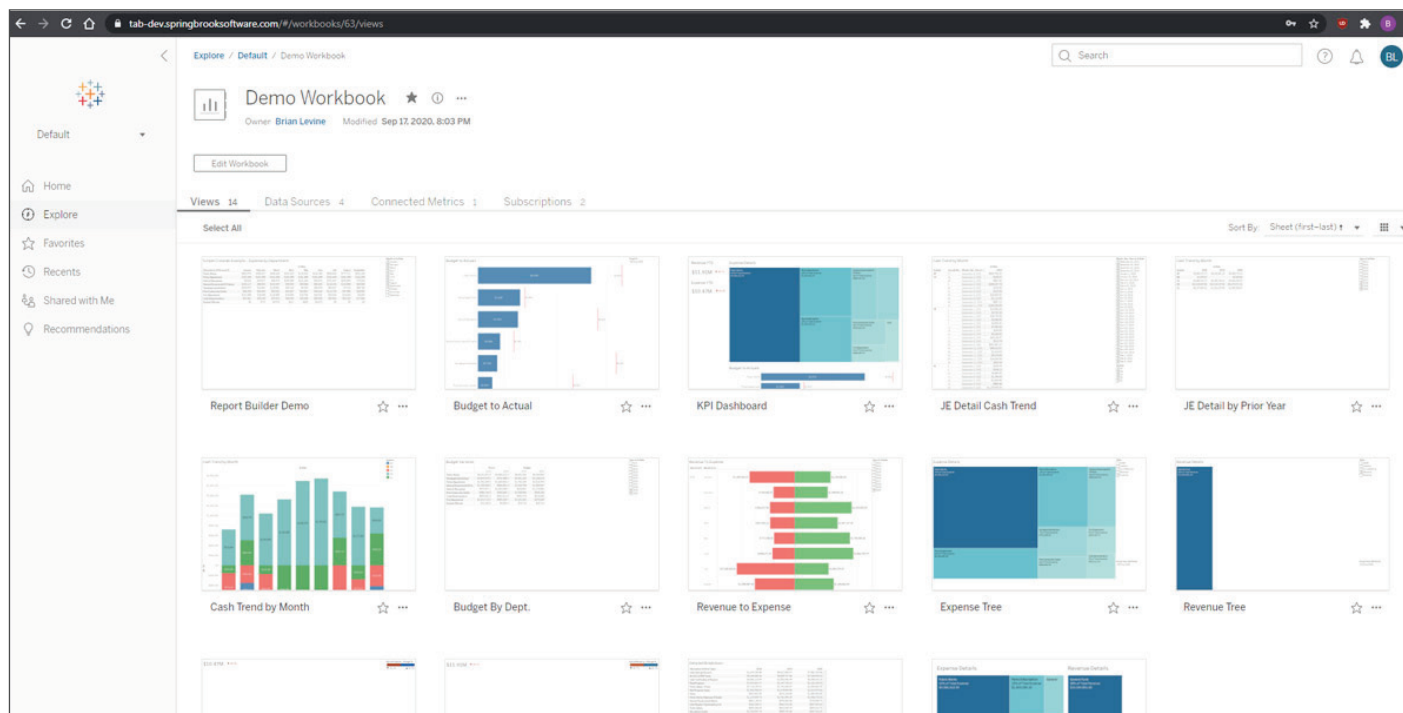

Springbrook Reporting and Analytics

The most powerful analytics and reporting tool available for local governments.

Springbrook is bringing all cloud customers Tableau, the industry leading reporting software that enables fast, customized, easy to develop and interpret visualizations supporting virtually any local government data reporting need. Tableau's software will provide Springbrook's community with a host of important advantages that collectively deliver a comprehensive interactive view of programs, budgets and high-level trends across the entire Agency.

Easily see all your reports, dashboards and KPIs in one view.

Amazing reporting and visualization tools to make your job easier

Designed for your agency

Pre-configured with the most popular templates

Incredible graphics

Tell your story in the most compelling manner possible with stunning data visualizations

Stay informed and on track

Automated subscriptions and alerts

Flexible

Mobile report distribution on any device or platform

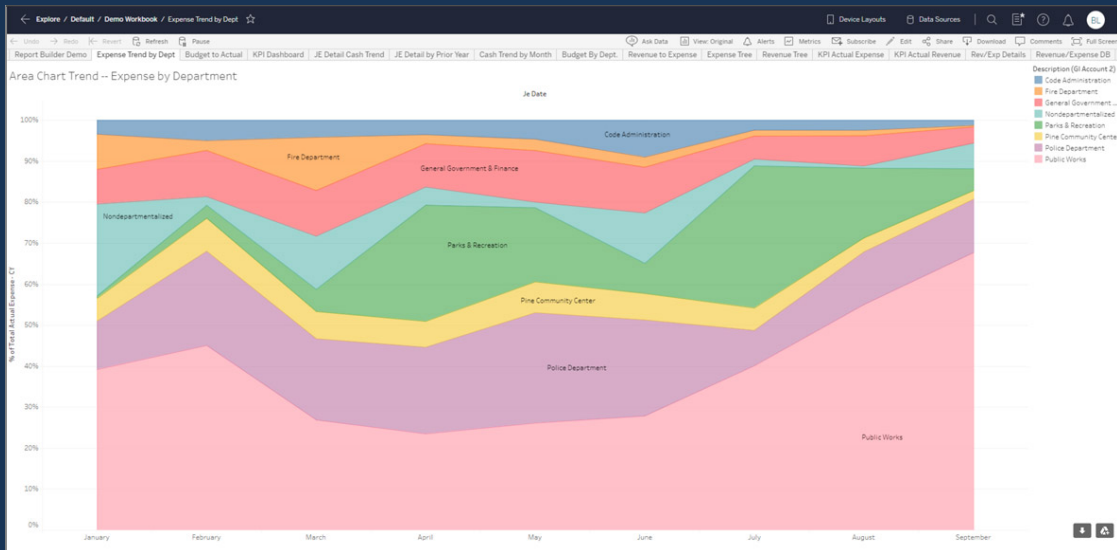

Easy to use

Users will be able to develop new reports in minutes

Efficient

Report automation: eliminate manual redundant tasks

Join the nearly 1,100+ Agencies That Count On Springbrook To Run Their Agencies

Many local government use Tableau to shave months off reporting timelines with clean government analytics. Springbrook is making the power of Tableau available to all our cloud customers, free of charge, in 2021. Our package comes pre-configured with the most popular templates, ready for immediate use. Contact your representative today or call Springbrook directly for more information.